

CLAS240/HIST240-01

Everyday Life in Ancient Rome

.5 course 1st half of spring semester
TTh 9:30-10:45
Instructor:
Sienkewicz

Everyday Life in Ancient Rome focuses on various aspects of daily life in the ancient Roman Empire and a comparative examination of human activities in the ancient and modern worlds. The course surveys topics like urban vs. rural life, travel, economy and trade, writing, education, slavery, gladiators, etc. Many types of evidence will be discussed, including readings in translation from several ancient Greek and Latin texts, painting, sculpture, and archaeological remains.

REQUIRED TEXTS:

